Welcome

Welcome to another six months of entertainment in Perth Theatre and Concert Hall!

I was particularly struck by one recent comment from an audience member:
'it was a decision maker for me moving to Perth... when I saw that it actually had a theatre and concert hall'.

Compared to other similar sized cities, we are lucky to have such world-leading venues, and it is a delight to offer such a comprehensive mix of music, theatre, comedy, dance, film, talks and activities.

The Perth Theatre Season Subscription opens with Lyceum Edinburgh's Jekyll & Hyde starring Forbes Masson, followed by Original Theatre's riotous retelling of The Time Machine, a Perth Theatre production of action-packed comedy Casablanca: The Gin Joint Cut, Simple8 Theatre's vibrant reimagining of Moby Dick and London Classic Theatre's wickedly funny What the Butler Saw.

Perth Youth Theatre take centre stage with Antigone, and star alongside the professional cast in Perth Theatre's community show Castaways of Kinnoull Hill.

Our exclusive Classical Stars series in Perth Concert Hall presents a galaxy of glittering names including phenomenal pianist Leif Ove Andsnes, celebrated singer Roderick Williams and the world-famous Kanneh-Mason family. China Shenzhen Symphony Orchestra makes a special appearance as part of Perth Concert Series which also features Volkov conducts Petrushka by BBC SSO, RSNO's La Mer with singer Catriona Morison and the Ravel Piano Concerto performed by Steven Osborne with the Scottish Chamber Orchestra.

We've lined up a who's who of brilliant Scottish artists including Justin Currie, Georgia Cécile and Karine Polwart for a Perth Concert Hall production Scotland Sings Bacharach, celebrating a true giant of 20th century music.

From the Jam, Scott Bradlee's Postmodern Jukebox, Eddi Reader, The Drifters, 10cc and Average White Band are just some of the highlights from our music programme, which also features top tribute acts, plus intimate gigs from local and traditional musicians in the Joan Knight Studio Sessions.

Rob Brydon shares A Night of Songs and Laughter, Fascinating Aida celebrate 40 years on the road with a riotous new show and Jack Docherty presents David Bowie & Me – Parallel Lives.

Giovanni: Let Me Entertain You and Nadiya and Kai: Behind the Magic leave Strictly fans spoilt for choice, while film lovers can settle in for more specially selected screenings from Perth Film Society.

Underpinning it all, our Learning & Engagement team continue to bring the transformative power of the performing arts to people from all walks of life through our extensive range of workshops, groups and outreach activities.

Want to get more involved? Become a Friend of Perth Theatre and Concert Hall for exclusive insights, early booking opportunities and get-togethers with like-minded regulars.

Visit our website for more information and to book. I look forward to seeing you!

Volkov conducts Petrushka

Fri 26 Jan: 19:30

Stravinsky Scènes de ballet
Mozart Piano Concerto No 9 'Jeunehomme' K 271
Stravinsky Petrushka (1947 version)

Joanna MacGregor, piano
Ilan Volkov, conductor

Take Ilan Volkov, the BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra's charismatic Principal Guest Conductor, and a byword for music-making without compromise. Add Joanna MacGregor, the energising, genre-busting British pianist who plays by no rules but her own. Combine them with the melody, wit and imagination of the 21 year old genius Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, for the centrepiece of a concert that pairs the most dazzling musical mind of the late 18th century with the composer who revolutionised the 20th. Driving rhythms, fabulous colours, and fairground puppets that spring to life: this is the world of Igor Stravinsky, and we can't wait to show you around.

Tchaikovsky's Fifth

Fri 23 Feb: 19:30

Geirr Tveitt Velkomne med Æra, Op 151 ('Welcome with Honour')
Dvořák Cello Concerto in B minor
Tchaikovsky Symphony No 5 in E minor

Truls Mørk, cello
Tabita Berglund, conductor

No composer does emotion quite like Tchaikovsky. 'With desire and passion', his Fifth Symphony begins in melancholy and ends in roof-raising celebration. No wonder it's one of the most popular symphonies ever composed - and conductor Tabita Berglund will bring out its raw power as well as all those unforgettable tunes. It's a stirring climax to a concert that begins with a haunting folksong from the fjords of Norway, and stars the great Truls Mørk in Dvořák's Cello Concerto: music of heartfelt tenderness and epic grandeur. Some say it was inspired when the composer saw Niagara Falls - but decide for yourself today.

La Mer

Thu 7 Mar: 19:30

Bonis Femmes de légende, Three Pieces for Orchestra
Chausson Poème de l'amour et de la mer
Ravel Une barque sur l'océan
Debussy La Mer

Catriona Morison, mezzo-soprano
Thomas Søndergård, conductor

Cleopatra, the fabled queen. Salomé, the temptress. Ophelia, Shakespeare's gentle, lovelorn heroine. Tonight, Scotland's international award-winning mezzo-soprano Catriona Morison becomes each of them in turn, in a fantastical lost masterpiece by the 19th century French composer Mel Bonis. And that's just the start of it: Thomas Søndergård unleashes floodtides of passion in an all-French evening inspired by the sea. When Chausson, Ravel and Debussy gazed at the waves, they each saw a different kind of beauty: let them sweep you away tonight.

Ravel Piano Concerto with Steven Osborne

Wed 24 Apr: 19:30

Honegger Pastorale d'été
Ravel Piano Concerto in G major
Ravel Pavane
Haydn Symphony No 87 in A major

Steven Osborne, piano
Andrew Manze, conductor

Ravel effortlessly blends together raucous jazz and heart-breaking tenderness in his quicksilver Piano Concerto - and Edinburgh-based international piano virtuoso Steven Osborne is just the musician to convey the piece's exquisite wit and sparkle.

Elsewhere in conductor Andrew Manze's concert of poetry and playfulness, Ravel offers a touching tribute to an imagined Spanish princess, Honegger celebrates the beauty of the summertime Alps, and Haydn unleashes sonic glories in the last and most exuberant of his Paris symphonies.

Viennese New Year Concert

Thu 4 Jan: 19:30

Dvořák Prague Waltzes (selection)
J Strauss II Frühlingstimmen (Voices of Spring)
Suppe Overture, Light Cavalry
R Strauss Amor
Lehar Vilja Lied (The Merry Widow)
Siecznyski Vienna, City Of My Dreams
J Strauss II An der schönen blauen Donau

Jennifer France, soprano
Jiří Rožeň, conductor

Our Viennese New Year Concert offers a tempting selection of musical confections to enthrall and delight – from the rich musical flavours of Rožeň's homeland, in the form of Dvořák's delicious dance-hall Prague Waltzes, to exquisite tidbits from Hungary and Germany. Brilliant British soprano Jennifer France brings her silvery vocal sparkle to showpieces by Lehar and Zeller, as well as Richard Strauss's touching love song Amor. Your captivating trip concludes with the opulence of the Strauss family's Vienna – where else? – amid the timeless beauty of The Blue Danube.

China Shenzhen Symphony Orchestra

Mon 18 Mar: 19:30

Tan Dun Overture 'Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon'
Chausson Poème
Mahler Symphony No 1 in D major 'Titan'

Tamsin Waley Cohen, violin
Jiapeng Nie, cello
DaYe Lin, conductor

A fantastic opportunity to hear a great orchestra from China. Ang Lee's Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon was a box office sensation and Tan Dun's music was at the core of its success. Chausson's gorgeous Poème is followed by Mahler's stunning first symphony. Nicknamed 'Titan', the music is full of all the energy and drive of the composer's youth, and features one of the most exciting finales in all music. Led by one of the most exciting young conductors in China, this evening promises to be one to treasure.

Paul Lewis: Schubert Piano Sonatas Cycle III

Wed 28 Feb: 19:30

Schubert Sonata No 4 in A minor D537
Schubert Sonata No 9 in B major D575
Schubert Sonata No 18 in G major D894

Paul Lewis continues his remarkable survey of Schubert's piano sonatas in a Scottish exclusive project. The late G major sonata is one of his finest and combines perfectly with the two earlier sonatas. Great Schubert playing gives the listener a feeling of complete timelessness and takes everyday life away. Paul Lewis's Schubert performances are among the finest to be heard anywhere in the world.

'Lewis' formidable talent and ripening musicianship' Classics Today

Schubert and Brahms with Leif Ove Andsnes

Mon 11 Mar: 19:30

Schubert Piano Sonata in A minor D784
Geirr Tveitt Piano Sonata No 29 'Sonata Etere'
Schubert Impromptu No 1 in F minor D935
Brahms 7 Fantasien Op 116

In a UK exclusive we are more than thrilled to present one of the world's leading pianists. Leif Ove Andsnes has been at the very peak of the music world for many years. In 2022 he directed and played in two Proms concerts with the Mahler Chamber Orchestra. His recordings for EMI and now Sony are hugely successful and well regarded. He offers us major works by Schubert and Brahms and one by the extraordinary 20th century Norwegian pianist and composer Geirr Tveitt.

'Andsnes has entered an elite circle of pianistic stardom... When he sits in front of the keyboard .... extraordinary things happen'

Chopin and Liszt with Stephen Hough

Sat 20 Apr: 19:30

Cécile Chaminade selected pieces
Liszt Piano Sonata in B minor
Chopin Piano Sonata No 3 in B minor

Since winning the 1983 Naumburg Piano Competition in New York, Stephen Hough has become one of the world's leading pianists. Not content with that, he is also a successful composer and a highly respected author with several books to his credit. Two iconic romantic piano masterpieces by 19th century virtuoso pianists Chopin and Liszt form the core of this programme. They are juxtaposed with a selection of pieces by Cécile Chaminade, whose music has been compared to that of Saint-Saëns and Gounod.

'few living pianists manage to combine open-hearted virtuosity with so tangible and unaffected a sense of an inner world beyond the notes' The Arts Desk

Roderick Williams: Tell Me The Truth About Love

Sun 2 Jun: 15:00

Schumann Dichterliebe Op 48 (A Poet's Love)
 Sung in English in a new translation by Jeremy Sams
With songs by Clara Schumann, Quilter, Fanny Mendelssohn, Finzi, Britten, Josephine Lang, Caroline Shaw, Sally Beamish and Cheryl Frances Hoad

Roderick Williams, baritone
Christopher Glynn, piano

Famed for his beauty of tone and the immediacy of his communication with audiences, Roderick Williams is probably the most celebrated British singer of today. He is particularly famed for singing in English, and the core of this programme is Schumann's Dichterliebe (A Poet's Love) performed in a fresh translation by Jeremy Sams which renders the bittersweet text of love and loss immediate to an English-speaking audience.

'Roderick Williams and Christopher Glynn: Here is the greatest song cycle, indeed one of the supreme works of art, a great singer at the height of his powers, and an admirable accompanist – exactly what I've been waiting for' Classicalmusic.com

£6 - £27.50 | Concessions available | U18s go free

Schubert's Trout Quintet with the Kanneh-Masons

Sun 23 Jun: 15:00

Mendelssohn Cello Sonata No 1 in B flat major Op 45
Brahms Piano Trio No 2 in C major Op 87
Schubert Piano Quintet in A major D 667 'Trout'

Braimah Kanneh-Mason, violin
Edgar Francis, viola
Sheku Kanneh-Mason, cello
Toby Hughes, double bass
Isata Kanneh-Mason, piano

Schubert's 'Trout Quintet', based around the melody of one of his most famous songs, has long been one of the best loved of all pieces of chamber music, featuring frequently as a choice on Desert Island Discs. And who better to bring this wonderful music to life than the Kanneh-Mason family joined by two friends. Two other fantastic pieces of chamber music complete the programme.

'an enchanting tour de force from a stunningly gifted musical family'

Brahms and Shostakovich with Arash Rokni

Mon 29 Jan: 12:45

J.S.Bach/G.Leonhardt

Movements from Violin Partita in D minor BWV1004

Shostakovich Prelude and Fugue in D minor Op 87

Brahms Variations on a theme by Schumann Op 9

Hindemith Suite 1922 Op 26

Arash Rokni, piano

Born in Tehran, Iran, Arash Rokni has performed and participated in festivals and competitions across Europe and the rest of the world. His programme includes a piano transcription of one of Bach's finest solo violin works and Brahms' tribute to his friend Robert Schumann. It is completed by two of the towering musical geniuses of the 20th century in Hindemith and the great Russian, Shostakovich, who managed to thrive artistically even under the hugely restrictive regime of Stalin.

Nikita Naumov and Friends

Mon 12 Feb: 12:45

Bach Sonata No 2 for viola da gamba

Glière 4 pieces

Teppo Hauta-aho

Cadenza for bass solo

Bottesini Concerto 'Allà Mendelssohn'

Tabakov Motives

Bottesini Duo for clarinet and double bass

Nikita Naumov, double bass

Maximiliano Martin, clarinet

Sholpa Martin, piano

Scottish Chamber Orchestra Principal Double Bass Nikita Naumov is a truly charismatic performer and a stunning musician. His programme of virtuoso music for the double bass ranges from a transcription of one of Bach's fantastic viola da gamba sonatas to two works by Bottesini. Known as 'The Paganini of the double bass', Bottesini started off as a clarinetist, so it is fitting that this concert ends with his duo for clarinet and double bass performed by Nikita and the SCO's brilliant principal clarinet Maximiliano Martin.

Mon 26 Feb: 12:45

Robert Schumann Faschingsschwank aus Wien Op 26

Clara Schumann Souvenir de Vienne Op 9

Robert Schumann Carnaval Op 9

Anna Michels, piano

Scottish-Dutch pianist Anna Michels has performed major piano concertos with numerous Scottish and Dutch orchestras. This programme is based around three Viennese celebrations described in music by Robert Schumann and his wife Clara, who was a talented composer in her own right and whose music is finally getting the renown it deserves.

'Fandango' with the Malamatina Guitar Quartet

Mon 15 Apr: 12:45

Featuring works by Boccherini, Maxwell-Davies, Piazzolla, and more.

The transatlantic virtuoso members of the quartet all have sparkling solo careers and this programme gives a whirlwind trip around the world - you'll be taken on a captivating guitar-driven odyssey through the soulful sounds of Spain, the passionate rhythms of Argentina, the haunting melodies of Scotland, and beyond. This enchanting performance will transport your senses and leave you longing for more.

The Virtuoso Flute with André Cebrián

Mon 29 Apr: 12:45

A programme of music with Gypsy roots, including pieces by, among others, Haydn, Bartók, Sarasate, Doppler, Falla, Liszt, and Rimsky-Korsakov.

André Cebrián, flute

Irene Alfageme, piano

Amazing Spanish flautist André Cebrián became the Scottish Chamber Orchestra's Principal Flute in 2020, and since then has won the hearts of Scotland's musical audiences. Celebrated for his beauty of tone combined with remarkable virtuosity he offers a very eclectic programme based on gypsy themes from composers from Austria, Russia, Hungary, Spain and many other countries. A concert of heart-rending nostalgic melodies and glittering dances.

Mon 13 May: 12:45

Debussy arr. Plath Violin Sonata
Tansman Sonatine for Bassoon
Nadia Boulanger Three Pieces
Saint-Saëns Bassoon Sonata

Cerys Ambrose-Evans, bassoon

Scottish Chamber Orchestra's Principal bassoonist Cerys Ambrose-Evans has played with many of the UK's finest orchestras including the London Symphony Orchestra and the Royal Opera. Her programme includes Saint-Saëns' charming and brilliant bassoon sonata with works by Debussy, Tansman and Nadia Boulanger, proving that the bassoon is a solo instrument every bit as rewarding as the other members of the wind section.

St Mary's Music School

Mon 3 Jun: 12:45

A welcome return for the brilliant young soloists of St Mary's Music School. As one of the UK's finest specialist music schools this concert presents some of their senior students in a performance of chamber music and solo works. Last year's performance was a smash, and we can't wait to welcome them back.

Ukraine's Dnipro Opera Performing Puccini's La Bohème

Fri 15 Mar: 19:30

Puccini La Bohème
Sung in Italian with English surtitles

Featuring an impressive cast and accompanied by a live orchestra of over 30 musicians, Ukraine's Dnipro Opera has a long-standing heritage of top-quality opera productions.

La Bohème is Puccini's passionate story of love at first sight set in 19th century Paris. Set in the Bohemian district, poet Rodolfo and his friends live their lives in freedom and independence, but pay the price for this through financial hardship. Life takes a turn for the better when Rodolfo falls in love with his fragile neighbour Mimi, but poverty and Mimi's ill health confront the couple with a harsh reality. They soon realise that love cannot conquer all.

Bach Cantata 181 'Leichtgesinnte Flattergeister'

Julia Doyle, soprano
Helen Charlston, mezzo-soprano
Nicholas Mulroy, tenor
Matthew Brook, baritone
John Butt, director

When Bach took up the position as Kantor at the Thomaskirche in Leipzig in 1723, he could hardly have anticipated the indelible imprint his appointment would have upon the future of western classical music. 300 years on from that historic appointment, we look back at his first cantata cycle, and the rich creative environment that surrounded him as he made musical history.

Mass from Yale

Wed 5 Jun: 19:30

Bach B Minor Mass

Yale Schola Cantorum
Juilliard415

David Hill, conductor

Bach's B Minor Mass is one of the pinnacles of all music, composed on a grand scale with large orchestra and double choir. With its breathtaking range of expression - from intimate arias, to spectacular choruses with virtuoso solo trumpets - any performance of this great work is something to treasure. We are thrilled to welcome the Schola Cantorum from Yale with distinguished British conductor David Hill and the Juilliard415 period ensemble for what promises to be a special evening.

National Youth Orchestras of Scotland: Development Orchestra

Sat 13 Apr: 19:30

The NYOS Development Orchestra is made up of aspiring, talented young musicians from across Scotland, offering fantastic orchestral experiences for ages 11 to 18.

Their spring concert opens in dramatic fashion with Verdi's turbulent and impassioned La forza del destino Overture and closes with the energetic Danzón No 2 by Márquez. Natalia Luis-Bassa returns to conduct having nurtured the orchestra from its inception, and they are joined by the brilliant young trumpet player Aaron Azunda Akugbo, fresh from his debut at the BBC Proms in 2023, to perform Tomasi's Trumpet Concerto.

(Very) Loosely adapted from the novel by HG Wells
Directed by Orla O'Loughlin

Direct from its London run, enjoy 'possibly one of the best nights out ever' (West End Best Friend) in this must-see comedy show starring Michael Dylan (Wilf), George Kemp (Jack Absolute Flies Again) and Amy Revelle (Offside).

Wells' deadly serious masterpiece will never be the same again as this highly skilled group of actors embark on a journey of a lifetime!

Will George persuade the others to stick to the script he's worked so hard on?
Will Michael be able to explain time travel without the help of excessive props?
Will Amy get to sing her Cher tribute?

And ultimately... will they be able to defeat the space time paradox - or at least get through the second half?

Casablanca: The Gin Joint Cut

Thu 14 – Sat 30 Mar: Times vary

A lovingly disrespectful homage to one of the best classic films of all time!

Casablanca has some of the most iconic scenes and best lines ever written - so why not play it again? But this time set in a tiny gin joint with three actors playing all the parts.

This fast-paced, action-packed comedy will have you raising a Bogart-style eyebrow, shedding a Bergman-like tear and drowning out the Nazis with a rousing chorus of the Marseillaise.

Written by award-winning director Morag Fullarton the show is a cleverly constructed tribute to the film. It has been performed in Paris, Amsterdam, London and toured nationally, garnering a cache of 5 star reviews.

What The Butler Saw

Tue 30 Apr – Sat 4 May: Times vary Age guidance: 14+. With strong language, nudity

Written by Joe Orton
Directed by Michael Cabot

Within the pristine walls of his private psychiatric clinic, Doctor Prentice is interviewing a new secretary – Geraldine – who wants the position but seems underqualified and uncertain about her parentage. Mrs Prentice appears, flushed and in urgent need of a drink following an illicit encounter with Nick Beckett, blackmailer and bell boy at the Station Hotel. In the meantime, Doctor Rance, a Government Inspector, and policeman Sergeant Match arrive amidst increasing chaos with searching questions of their own.

What The Butler Saw is Joe Orton's final, most ambitious play – a masterclass in manic farce and fearless comic writing – where no institution, political view or tradition is safe as Orton focuses his wicked sense of humour on the establishment, an ex-Prime Minister, cross-dressing, misogyny and the medical profession. With distinctive characters and a series of improbable situations, prepare to explore comic territory few playwrights before (or since!) have dared to visit.

Castaways of Kinnoull Hill

Fri 14 – Sat 29 Jun: Times vary

January 1993. It rained so much it felt like Perth would be swept away. Families had to flee their homes with no time to pack and no idea what they would come back to. Things that were once thought safe and locked away were now threatened. Do we have time to take the pets? What do we do about our vinyl LP collection? And... will the family secrets float to the surface?

One group of young friends escape the city and seek the safety of Kinnoull Hill. While the waters run wild, the group debates what the next best step is for their current predicament, and unwittingly, for the future of the city that they discover they all love.

This love letter to our city will feature members of Perth Youth Theatre alongside a professional adult cast, in a community production exploring the challenges, common ground, and chances for change we and our Fair City face.

Antigone

Sat 17 + Sun 18 Feb: 19:00

Written by Sophocles

Translated by Paul Woodruff

Directed by Jordan Blackwood

Set & Costume Design by Jen McGinley

Composed by Bethany Tennick

Assistant Direction and Movement Direction by Genna Allan

A girl rebels against the kingdom, and the kingdom pushes back.

Antigone is reeling after the death of her brother, and she wants to give him the send-off he deserves. The only thing standing in her way is Creon, the new king who is trying to assert authority. She can choose to step down, or she can choose to resist. And if she goes up against the king, she stands to lose more than just her pride...

An ancient story that ripples through time to the present day, Antigone takes us on a riveting and unravelling journey from control to chaos where the personal and political collide.

Reimagined by the cast of Perth Youth Theatre, Antigone fuses Paul Woodruff's translation of Sophocles' text with live sound and movement for a production of a classic that sizzles with youthful energy and emotion.

E. F. Benson Ghost Stories presents

Hauntings

Sat 27 Jan: 19:30 Age guidance: 12+

Directed by Gareth Armstrong
Music by Simon Slater

An evening of three tales of the supernatural from two of the world's greatest writers of ghost stories, E.F. Benson and M.R. James.

From E.F. Benson (famed for his Mapp and Lucia comic novels) comes Naboth's Vineyard in which just deserts are meted out to an unscrupulous lawyer, and The Hanging of Alfred Wadham where forces of the devil test a man of faith to his limits.

And from the acknowledged master of the ghost story genre, M.R. James, comes Oh, Whistle and I'll Come to You, My Lad - a tale of how a medieval spirit terrorises an arrogant professor.

With masterful storytelling from the award-winning actor Gerard Logan, Hauntings will transport you to a dark, sinister world of the unexpected and the unexplainable.

Calamity Jane

Wed 10 – Sat 13 Apr: Times vary

In the wild-west outpost of Deadwood City, 1876, we find the sharpshooting tomboy Calamity Jane surrounded by cowboys, townsfolk, and the famous Wild Bill Hickok.

After a mix-up in the talent pool at Deadwood's saloon-theatre, Calam goes to Chicago to import to Deadwood the glamorous actress, Adelaid Adams, but returns by mistake with her maid Katie Brown instead.

Back in Deadwood, Katie's inability to perform is overcome as she wins the heart of the young Lieutenant Danny Gilmartin, and when Calam sheds her tomboy persona at a ball at the local Fort, she realises that she loves Wild Bill Hickok.

Following the success of previous shows Legally Blonde, 9 to 5 The Musical and Sister Act, Perth Amateur Operatic Society return for what is sure to be another year of fantastic performances.

Alan Bissett's The Moira Trilogy

Sat 11 May: 18:00, 19:30, 21:00 Age guidance: 15+

Directed by Sacha Kyle

A thrilling theatrical evening that brings together three acclaimed and hilarious shows performed for the first time in a single night.

Meet Moira Bell – single mother, cleaner, and 'Falkirk's Hardest Woman', described as 'the most charismatic character to appear on a Scottish stage in a decade' (The Scotsman).

Alan Bissett's 'one-woman shows' have been leaving audiences weak with laughter since 2009. The Moira Monologues introduced Moira to the world with rave reviews, followed by More Moira Monologues in 2017 which won a Fringe First and was shortlisted for Best New Play at the CATS awards, and 2022's Moira in Lockdown.

Now, for the first time, witness Moira's hilarious journey in a single sitting. Book for a single chapter or the full trilogy.

'howlingly funny' ★★★★★ The Scotsman
'comedy gold' ★★★★★ The National

Tenebrae A Prayer for Deliverance

Fri 24 May: 7.30pm

St John's Kirk of Perth
 Tickets £22.50 - £36 inc. booking fee.
 Under 18s £5.

Mixing iconic choral works with music by some of today's most exciting composers, this varied programme is centred around themes of rest. Joel Thompson's virtuosic new work is a particular highlight: written in 15 parts, A Prayer for Deliverance (2021) perfectly showcases Tenebrae's core values of passion and precision. The second half features Herbert Howells' Requiem – surely one of the most moving works in the English choral repertoire. Experience this powerful music in the beautiful setting and stunning acoustic of St John's Kirk.

"For purity and precision of tone, and flawless intonation, Nigel Short's chamber choir Tenebrae is pretty much unbeatable."

Cassani / Campbell

with Ross Ainslie, Doug Hough and Graeme Stephen

Fri 19 Jan: 20:00

See the very first live performance of local talents Roberto Cassani and Fraser Campbell as the utterly unique duo Cassani / Campbell.

Perth-born saxophonist and composer Fraser Campbell is now New-York based, whilst Italian double bassist and songwriter Roberto Cassani has made Perth his adopted home. Their debut album poet / shuts / clock arose from outdoor jams in Perth during lockdown and its title is the geolocation tag for the bench on the North Inch where they'd meet to play. Released on New York jazz label Sunnyside, it embraces spontaneous lyrics, quirky spoken word, bossa nova and the blues to create an unforgettable listening experience – hear this plus material from Roberto's Ansema album, and new instrumentals, in this special evening.

Katie Whittaker plus Kate Harris

Fri 26 Jan: 20:00

Perthshire-based vocalist Katie Whittaker marks the release of her upcoming debut album with her first solo headline show in Perth.

Katie is perhaps best known for her long-term role fronting the great Perth Americana ensemble Red Pine Timber Co. She steps into the spotlight as a songwriter and artist in her own right with Shine, her brand-new album that explores young love, self-doubt, perseverance and Katie's own brand of optimistic idealism.

With the storytelling of country music, powerful soulful vocals, the hooks of pop hits and that Americana edge that pushes the boundaries of genre and instrumentation, the album – and this performance – is sure to showcase every side of Katie's musical character.

Outliers: Boo Hewerdine & Jenny Sturgeon

Thu 8 Feb: 20:00

Outliers from renowned songwriters Boo Hewerdine and Jenny Sturgeon would never have existed without the 2020/2021 lockdowns...

Created and recorded from their homes in Glasgow and Shetland, it's the outcome of sharing melodies, sounds and ideas in ways they'd not done so before. This method of writing and creating music outside of the usual studio setting is what led them to settle on the name Outliers.

Expect the first half of this gig to feature songs from Boo and Jenny's combined back catalogues whilst in the second they'll perform new music from Outliers. They'll be joined onstage throughout by multi-instrumentalist Grant Anderson.

Fascinating Aïda: The 40th Anniversary Show!

Tue 12 Mar: 19:30 Age guidance: 14+. With strong language/sexual references

Dillie, Liza and Adèle - Britain's raciest and sassiest musical cabaret trio - are bringing a brand-new show to celebrate 40 years on the road.

Fascinating Aïda have performed in the world's most prestigious venues and been showered with awards and plaudits since they first sashayed onto the scene back in 1983.

Uniquely charming, with diamond-sharp satire; filthy, hilarious, belligerent, political, poignant and outrageous, this indomitable trio are still the mistresses of their craft.

Marking this astonishing milestone, the show will feature much-loved favourites and some wickedly hilarious new songs. Don't miss the chance to celebrate with these unstoppable performers!

'cabaret heaven' ★★★★★ Metro

'outrageous... seductive' ★★★★★ The Guardian

SPECIAL SCREENING WITH LIVE PERFORMANCE

Night Voyager

Thu 18 Jan: 19:45 U, 2019, 62mins, English

From Polish composer and audio-visual artist and Cryptic Artist, Ela Orleans.

Set to soaring music featuring live synthesiser, theremin and violin, Night Voyager features footage of the 1969 Apollo moon mission, repurposed to retell the narrative of Night Thoughts, a nine-poem cycle written by Edward Young in the 1740s.

Night Voyager marries visuals from the NASA archives with Young's meditation on death. It speaks of the possibility of cultural forgetting, as with Young's poem which is now scarcely remembered but called in its time 'the grandest and richest poetry that human genius has ever produced'.

'rather than a linear retelling, Orleans' show focuses on the astronauts' emotional journey and the wider meaning of the lunar trip' The National

Book online for the best price: £6 - £7
Or in-person on the night: £6.50 - £7.50

Part of our ongoing project celebrating the Polish community's contribution to the cultural life of Perth & Kinross.

This performance is supported by PRS Foundation's Beyond Borders, a co-commissioning and touring programme run in partnership with Creative Scotland, Arts Council of Wales, Arts Council of Northern Ireland and Arts Council of Ireland /An Chomhairle Ealaíon.

Become a Friend of Perth Theatre and Concert Hall

Perth Theatre and Concert Hall are the beating heart of cultural life in Perthshire. Become our Friend from as little as £5 a month to enjoy exclusive benefits whilst you help us to inspire, explore, connect and educate.

Donations and support allows us to provide life-changing learning and engagement projects to communities who may not otherwise have access to what we offer, allowing everyone to share in experiences that ignite the imagination and make life more meaningful. And there's so many more engaging and enriching projects we'd like to develop.

If you share our belief in the transformative power of the performing arts, join our Friends scheme to play your part. You'll gain access to a range of exclusive benefits, whilst giving us the valuable funding we need to continue to play an essential role in stimulating positive wellbeing within the communities we serve.
